

Dutch Barn Preservation Society e-news, 8 July 2014

Dutch Barn Tour

Saturday, July 19, 2014
Wappingers Falls and Fishkill
Meet at 10:30 AM

The DBPS July Barn tour is set for 10:30 July 19; meet at 209 All Angels Hill Road, Wappingers Falls, NY 12590. It has been organized by DBPS Board member Bob Hedges.

This is a Dutch barn complex belonging to Todd Rodgers, which has been undergoing renovations for several years. The tour will also include another Dutch barn at the East Fishkill historical Society Site

Wappingers Falls is just south of Poughkeepsie-an hour and 38 minutes from Albany; The Rogers' barn was featured once when the HVVA visited-in the October 2009 issue of Hudson Valley Magazine -

<http://www.hvmag.com/Hudson-Valley-Magazine/September-2009/Feels-Like-Holland/> [but there aren't any pictures of the barn in the article.]

Here are two pretty old pictures of the Rogers Barn from Keith Cramer-come and see the revised version...

Any questions call or email ned pratt, nedpratt66@aol.com; if I get some newer pictures I'll send them and more information out later-but put this date on your calendar now.

And another event- our friends at the Columbia County Historical Society are sponsoring an event on the early history of New Netherland this Saturday, the 12th, featuring Jaap Jacobs; the talk looks good, and it looks like it is also a bit of a fundraiser

The Columbia County Historical Society presents:

"The Great North River of New Netherland" The Hudson River and Dutch Colonization, a Lecture by Jaap Jacobs, University of St. Andrews

Saturday, July 12, 2014

4:00pm at the Kinderhook Dutch Reformed Church, 21 Broad St., Kinderhook

Lecture: $7.00 for CCHS members or $10.00 non-members

A reception will follow the lecture at the Pruyn House of 1766 in Kinderhook $30 for members or $45 non-members. Price includes lecture.

Reservations necessary for reception. Call 518 758 9265 to RSVP

This program is supported by a grant from the New York Council for the Humanities and is part of this year's Dutch New York: Fact and Fiction series in honor of the Society's acquisition of the 1737 Luykas Van Alen House in 1964.

A flyer they sent is attached.

“THE GREAT NORTH RIVER OF NEW NETHERLAND”

THE HUDSON RIVER AND DUTCH COLONIZATION

A lecture by Dr. Jaap Jacobs, University of St. Andrews

SATURDAY, JULY 12TH AT 4PM

at the Kinderhook Dutch Reformed Church, 21 Broad Street

Followed by a reception at the Pruyn House of 1766

Jaap Jacobs (Ph.D), a native of the Netherlands, specializes in history of the Dutch Republic and its colonies in the early modern period. Jacobs has published widely on New Netherlands and New Amsterdam, including The Colony of New Netherlands: A Dutch Settlement in Seventeenth-Century America (Cornell University Press, 2009). He is currently working on a biography of Petrus Stuyvesant.

For more information visit www.cchsny.org

Lecture: $7 members or $10 non-members.
No reservations needed.

Reception: $30 members or $45 non-members.
Price includes lecture. Call (518) 758 9265 to RSVP

COLUMBIA COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY
DUTCH NEW YORK: FACT AND FICTION LECTURE SERIES

This program is supported by a grant from the
NEW YORK COUNCIL FOR THE HUMANITIES